

2024 Annual Notice to Enrolled Students

Availability of Information

The Higher Education Act of 1965 (HEA), as amended, requires schools participating in the Title IV financial aid programs to provide an annual notice to students and employees disclosing a wide range of consumer information. The purpose of this information is to help students and employees make informed decisions regarding their education or employment.

The consumer information is divided into the following subject areas:

- General institutional information
- Financial aid information
- Completion, graduation, transfer, retention, and placement rates
- Annual security and fire safety reports
- Athletic program information
- Student and parent rights under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The following pages describe that consumer information and explains how students and employees may obtain the information.

This Annual Notice to Enrolled Students is published and distributed on an individual basis at Registration Day.

For more consumer information, visit the Graham Hospital School of Nursing website at: <https://www.grahamschoolofnursing.org/prospective-students/consumer-information/>. Paper copies of this information are available upon request.

Availability of Employees

In addition, a school must designate an employee or group of employees who shall be available on a full-time basis to assist enrolled or prospective students in obtaining information on the school, financial assistance, graduation and completion rates, security policies, and crime statistics. The person shall be available upon reasonable notice to any enrolled or prospective student throughout the normal administrative working hours of the school.

At Graham Hospital School of Nursing, contact: Coordinator of Student Affairs, soninfo@grahamhospital.org or (309) 647-5240, ext. 2347.

School Catalog – pg. 32

Website – <https://www.grahamschoolofnursing.org/prospective-students/program-outcomes/>

- Transfer rate – information on the transfer-out rate of certificate- or degree-seeking, first-time*, full-time undergraduate students, if the school’s mission includes providing substantial preparation for students to enroll in another eligible school.

Graham Hospital School of Nursing’s mission does not include providing substantial preparation for students to enroll in another eligible school.

- Retention rate – information on the retention rate of certificate- or degree-seeking, first-time*, undergraduate students.

School Catalog – pg. 32

Website – <https://www.grahamschoolofnursing.org/prospective-students/program-outcomes/>

* First-time student: a student who has no prior postsecondary experience (except as noted below) attending any institution for the first time at the undergraduate level. This includes students enrolled in academic or occupational programs. It also includes students enrolled in the fall term who attended college for the first time in the prior summer term, and students who entered with advanced standing (college credits earned before graduation from high school).

Graham Hospital School of Nursing has a very small number of students who are full-time, first-time, degree/certificate seeking students. Most of our students have completed some course work before entering our program and are therefore not considered first-time, degree/certificate students.

- Placement rate – information on the placement of, if the school calculates such a rate, and types of employment obtained by graduates of the school’s degree or certificate programs.

Graham Hospital School of Nursing does not calculate a placement rate or advertise job placement rates as a means of recruiting students.

Graduates are employed as Registered Nurses in hospitals, clinics, nursing homes, medical offices, and other such settings.
